

Summer Japanese Language Program 2023

We are pleased to announce that the Summer Japanese Language Program will be held in September 2023. The Program offers the opportunity to learn Japanese language and culture with the aim to contribute to the building of friendship between the people of BiH, its neighboring countries and Japan. The Program is organized within the framework of a collaborative agreement between University of Sarajevo, BiH and Sophia University (上智大学), Tokyo, Japan, and supported by the Japan Embassy in BiH.

The Program is communication-oriented and provides participants with the opportunity to talk about their own culture and get to know Japanese culture. It offers 8 online classes. 4 graduate students, who are studying Japanese language pedagogy, will teach Japanese in this program. Please see details of each course and teacher's introduction below.

☆We can fix the time according to your convenience. If this schedule does not work out for you, please let us know when is convenient on Google Form below☆

Japanese Beginner [A], [B], [C], [D]	This course is designed for students who have never learned Japanese before. In this course, you will start off learning some basic phrases that you can use to have a daily conversation in Japanese and Japanese letters such as あいいう. In the beginning, you might find learning Japanese difficult, but we will try to incorporate many interesting activities so that you can study Japanese having fun and be motivated to study Japanese more. In this course, you'll also learn Japanese cultures in addition to the Japanese language. You'll get to know the Japanese lifestyles, Japanese cities, foods, the Japanese ways of thinking and so on. As for the cultural part, we can deal flexibly according to what you're interested in and will arrange what we do/learn in classes. Students with a little experience with learning Japanese (those who with less than six-month learning span or who took Japanese 1 online class last year) are also welcome.
Japanese Upper-Beginner / Intermediate [E], [F]	This course is designed for students whose Japanese level is in upper-beginner to intermediate. The aim of this course is to brush up speaking and listening skills. Students will learn Japanese phrases used in ordinary situations through conversational practices. This course is aimed at students in the Level 1 to 2 of regular Japanese course or who have learnt Japanese for more than a year and know basic Japanese grammar. The knowledge of the Japanese writing system (Hiragana) is required. Other writing form (カタカナ & 漢字) are not required, but we are likely to touch on daily-base uses of them such as for names and places.
Japanese Upper-intermediate / Advanced [G], [H]	This course is designed for students who have basic knowledge of Japanese and can have a conversation in some daily situations. The topic of the conversations will range from practical daily usage to less-familiar, rather academic content. The topic for each session will be determined considering the preference, proficiency, needs, and interest of the applicants. In this course, we will deal with various topics through many activities such as discussion, presentation and so on. This course is designed for students who are in the Level 3 or 4of regular Japanese course whose level is upper – intermediate to advanced. More advanced learners are welcomed too.
